"I have fought a good fight"
Sermon preached at the funeral of Hattie Klinker
This had been requested by Chalmer Ohler.
By Rev R C Dawson
Methodist Church Monroeville Ind

Text: I have fought a good fight, I have finished my Course. I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a Crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day." II Timothy 4: 7, 8.

Introduction

There was something impirishable about Hattie Klinker. It was something that you felt, even though you Could not put your finger on it. Life Could do nothing to this person, and that which was indestructible in her would remain the same in its sublime independence of Circumstance and Conditions. The light that was in her would Continue to shine, and the fiercest gale would not put it out. Her real life had gradually declared its independence of her body... This observation about this woman gives us the assurance to say that one reason we so stubbornly believe that a man's life does not Come to an end at death is that we have known people like her.

Paul was really saying, Hold on Timothy, my time is practically over; you must Carry on. It is Jesus Christ who brings men to a Commitment of themselves to God. It is not a Commitment for a day, a year, but one for life. George Bernard Shaw once Said "The secret of being miserable is to have leisure to bother about whether you are happy or not. The cure for it is occupation, because occupation means pre-occupation and the pre-occupied person is alert, active and alive which is pleasanter than happiness." My mind is drawn to this quality of thought after I learned of Hattie's death: She had fought a good fight, Almost 94 years

I She may have Complained at some time or other, as most of us have, but she met life with Courage. These last weeks must have been a testing for her, as other periods Came to her for testing. I know deep down she fought a good fight. She fought for life and family.

Volunteer Surprised On 89th Birthday

A 10-year veteran of volunteer service to Parkview, Mrs. Hattie Klinker, was surprised by employees and volunteers on her 89th birthday with a party held in the hospital conference room.

From Monroeville, Mrs. Klinker reports faithfully each month to Central Service where she gives volunteer service. Her diary shows that she has been active as a Parkview volunteer since September 9, 1954. On the day of her party she had given 794 hours of service to the hospital.

In the accompanying picture Isabel Berkheiser, Central Service supervisor, cuts the first piece of cake for Mrs. Klinker.

Rotating Art Exhibits Brighten Patient Area

Painting exhibits now brighten the corridor and serve as conversation pieces for x-ray patients while they wait for treatment.

The displays, arranged for by Robert Rankin, chief x-ray technologist, are alternated monthly. Paintings hang along the corridor in the southwest wing in a waiting area for both out-patients and in-patients.

The first display was a group of pictures by Mary Lou Ross, Monroeville artist. The second was from the Fort Wayne Art Museum. In the accompanying photo two of Mrs. Ross's paintings can be seen in the background while Mrs. Sharon Hornberger, registered x-ray technologist, serves coffee to a waiting patient, Mrs. Harold Prill.

Circus Brings Acts To Hospital Grounds

Acrobats, poodles, a chimpanzee and other entertainers from the Paul A. Miller Circus provided a treat for patients and employees in mid-September when they performed on the back parking lot in a one-hour show.

Sponsored by the Pepsi Cola Co., the circus acts were staged in an area where patients on two wings of the hospital could view them. Patients from the South Unit and employees lined the lot outside, while others viewed from their rooms and the roof of the south wing. A piano-playing chimpanzee performs in the accompanying photo.

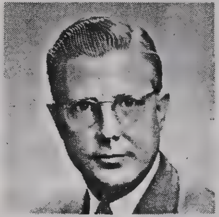
The first award made to outstanding graduates of the School of X-Ray Technology went to Diane Hall and Nell Irick at the school's 1964 commencement September 4. Above, the girls display their award for proud parents. Left to right are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hall of Fort Wayne, Diane Hall, Nell Irick, Mr. and Mrs. Ward E. Irick of Warren, Indiana.

MEET THE BOARD

This is another in a series of articles designed to acquaint readers with facts about Parkview's Board of Directors.

There are nine standing committees of the Board appointed annually. These include Administrative, Buildings and Grounds, Conference, Endowment, Finance, Planning, Public Relations, School of Nursing and Liaison.

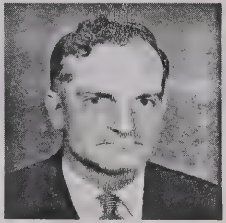
Harold L. Bobeck is a vice president of Lincoln National Life Insurance Company. He has served on the Board a total of seven years.



Otto E. Grant, Jr., is an attorney with the firm Barrett, Barrett and McNagny and also has been on the Board for seven years.

Lester L. Grile is superintendent of Fort Wayne Community Schools and is in his first year as a member of the Parkview Board.

Rev. Bryant J. Howard is minister of Forest Park Methodist Church. He has been on the Board four years.



SPOTLIGHT ON KNEES

Parkview-Methodist student nurses began a pilot program September 15 to learn about industrial nursing along with other phases of their training. Lincoln National Life Insurance Co. is cooperating by letting seniors observe their Medical Department's Health Service operation. In the photo LNL Chief Nurse Mary Schaub signs in seniors Leelia Davis and Nancy Coleman, the "pioneers" of the new program.

Parkview X-Ray Technology students walked off with two prizes at the 1964 Silver Anniversary convention of the Indiana Society of Radiologic Technologists held October 1-3 in Indianapolis. Students Judy Musselman, left, and Sandy Miller stand by their prize winning film exhibit, which cleverly utilized a giraffe to depict x-ray films of the cervical and upper dorsal spine. Trophies held by the students are for the film exhibit and scientific paper.

John, your mother was one in a million, smart, beautiful, generous and caring. Chuck said she was the classiest lady he ever knew. And he thought so much of you too. I know your heart is aching now, but I hope in some small way the words of love and tribute from friends will help ease that pain. God bless you each and every day. Diana (Slaughter) Wright

Johnny, something happened that I want to call your attention. I pulled my car onto the blacktop in order to make it easier for Alma Love to get in my car so I was facing the sun and the church door. Just as the casket of your mother came out the door a rainbow appeared under the sun. I was reluctant to call it a rainbow because there was no rain but on the eleven o'clock news that night it was call a rainbow. All in my car remarked and thought how unusual.
